BIOGRAPHY

Jana Lulovska is an interdisciplinary artist whose eclectic and dynamic approach ignites curiosity, challenges perceptions and norms, and inspires positive change by exploring the intersections of the transformative power of art, science, and humanity. She works primarily in photography, painting, printmaking and installation, and is also active in experimental film, video art, animation and design. She graduated from the National Academy for Theatre and Film Arts “Krstyo Sarafov”, Sofia, Bulgaria.

Jana's artistic journey has been marked by cultural exploration and intellectual discourse, with projects that aim to inspire positive change and challenge preconceived notions. She uses art as a platform for stimulation, education and therapy, inviting viewers to contemplate their place in a diverse world. In essence, her work is a testament to her belief in the transformative power of art, inspiring consciousness, healing, empathy, and understanding. Through her work, she focuses on the topics: the human condition, feminism, nature and ecology, time and movement.

Lulovska presented solo and group exhibitions in North Macedonia, USA, France, Belgium, Italy, Croatia, Greece etc. She has participated in international residencies, art and film workshops, and her films have been selected on numerous film festivals. Lulovska's artworks are in collections in North Macedonia, Italy, Germany and Bulgaria. Her artworks have been published in numerous books, catalogues and film magazines worldwide.
